

Billy Novick's Blue Syncopators Perform Novick's score for "The Great Gatsby" ballet

Who needs the dancers? Billy Novick's Blue Syncopators brought down the house for 7 sold out shows at the Kennedy Center in Washington, DC this past February.

The Washington Post wrote:

"Bringing in Boston-based jazz expert Billy Novick and his band...was a brilliant move.

The result is that for its musical splendors alone "Gatsby" is a remarkable event, an evening of explosive, ticklish and swooning live jazz (songs of the era, filled out with Novick's compositions), played with a verve to spark your thirst for hooch."

Come listen to this all-star band of New England musicians (with the wonderful Sunny Crownover adding her sultry vocals) bring the 1920's to life!
