

Guy Van Duser and Billy Novick

Guy Van Duser and Billy Novick have been performing their unique style of classic American jazz for over 40 years. Combining Guy's sophisticated, elegant guitar style with Billy's soulful clarinet, they have delighted audiences all over the country with the passion, warmth and wit of their music. They have released nine recordings as a duo, made many guest appearances on "A Prairie Home Companion Show," and have been the feature of a 30-minute interview on NPR's "All Things Considered."
